

Photo by Ed Rhodes

La Nana Bayou Watershed Protection Plan Development

Texas Water
Resources Institute
make every drop count

Introductions

- Established by Water Resources Research Act (1964) to address existing and emerging water issues
- Focus Areas
 - Restoring and Protecting
 - Sustaining and Enhancing
 - Engaging and Educating
- Several free publications
 - txH2O
 - Conservation Matters

TWRI Project Areas

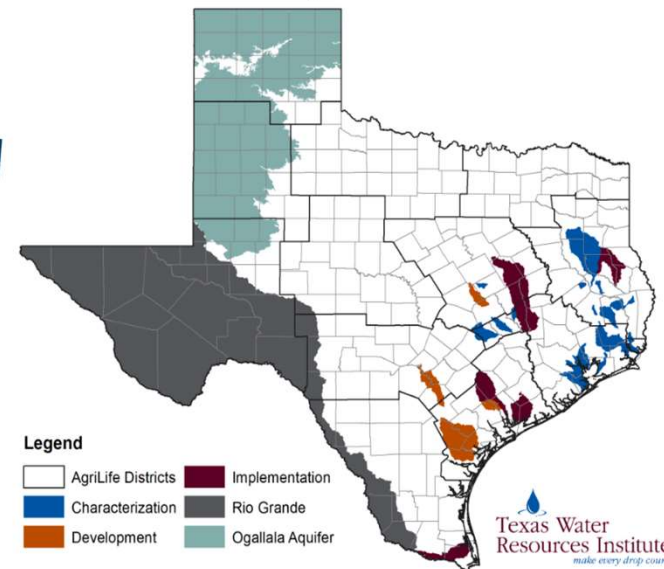

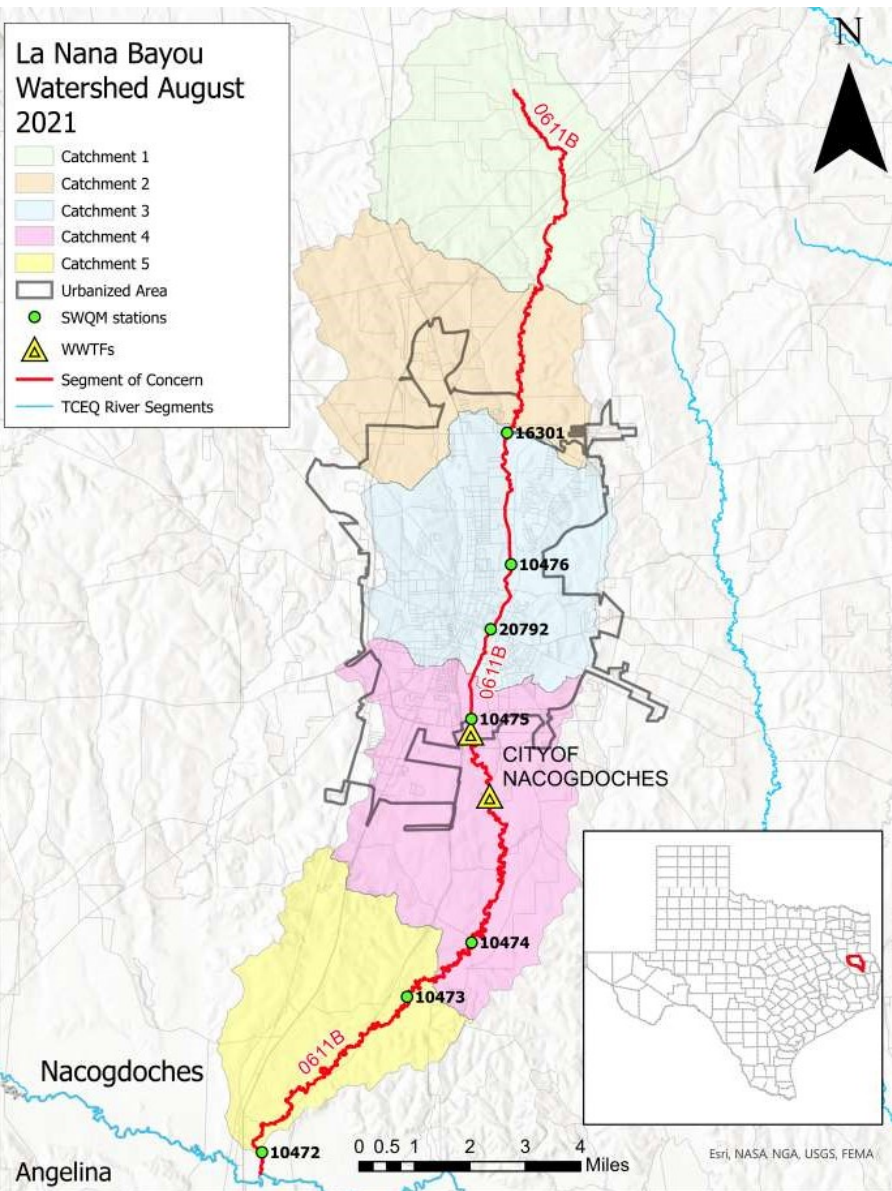

Photo by Ed Rhodes

Meeting Agenda

- Project Overview & Goals
- Water Quality & the Watershed
 - Surface Water Policy in Texas
 - Watershed-based Planning
 - La Nana Bayou Watershed Overview
- Stakeholder Organization
 - Steering Committee
- Proposed Timeline
- Next Steps
- Discussion & Questions

Project Overview

La Nana Bayou on 303d List for bacteria since 2000

Characterization Report completed in 2019

Watershed Protection Plan (WPP) development project is funded by TCEQ as part of a Clean Water Act Section 319(h) Grant from the U.S. EPA

TWRI, ANRA, and SFASU leading WPP development with local stakeholders to address water quality through voluntary management measures

Watershed Website: Tx.ag/LaNana